The Step-relationships

The marriage of Johann Christian Schubert and his third wife, Johanne Rosina Irrgang nee Krause, resulted in a complex network of step- and half-brothers and sisters:

- From her first marriage to Johann Gottlieb Irrgang, Johanne Rosina had two children:
 ~ Wilhelm Gustav Irrgang (1838 – 1876), married Maria Elisabeth Auricht (1841 – 1924), and worked for many years on the Bethesda Mission station in northern South Australia. He later farmed at Langmeil (Tanunda).
 ~ Johanne Christiane Irrgang (1840 – 1928), married Johann Ernst Wilksch (1840 – 1907), and farmed at Robertstown, South Australia. Ernst was a brother to Johann Gottlieb Wilksch who married Johann Christian Schubert's youngest daughter, Johanne Louise.
- After Schubert's death Johanne Rosina married Christian Rothe (1808 – 1875), whose known children by his first marriage to Anna Elisabeth Linke were:
 ~ Johanne Eleonore Rothe (1833 – 1916), married Rudolph Ferdinand Graetz (1825 – 1909), and farmed at North Rhine, Keyneton, where they were amongst the earliest pioneers.
 ~ Johann Gottlieb Rothe (1834 – 1926), married Marie Elisabeth Wolf (1844 – 1915), and farmed an adjoining property at North Rhine to his brother-in-law Ferdinand Graetz. He also pioneered a property at Towitta on the Murray Plains.
 ~ Johann Ernst Rothe ((1838 – 1921), married Johanne Louise Paech (1837 – 1914), and in his early life travelled widely from his home in Hahndorf to work as a shearer. Later he took up land near Kanmantoo with his son August.
 ~ Maria Elisabeth Rothe (1840 – 1888), married Johann Wilhelm Korten (1815 – 1903), a former Prussian army officer, who worked as an agent in Tanunda.
- One further child was born from Johanne Rosina's marriage to Rothe:

~ Johanne Elisabeth Rothe (1856 – 1923), married Johann Gottfried Arnold (1854 – 1929), and moved to New South Wales, establishing a successful and well-known fruit and greengrocery business in Albury.
